

Black Cat

You're on the other side of America
In a world where a girl's affair occurs,
And the boys don't care who they're taking home tonight

You got your purse and your skirt and you're looking good
With your hair all blowing through Hollywood
Your friends pretending you can all put up a fight

But there's a man in the back of my head
Creeping deep inside the shadows in the back alleys on your way home
Waiting there in an all black hood with a cigarette, he's got a gun
He's crazy as can be

Let me know when you're home alright so I don't go mad waiting up all night
Worrying, and thinking about that world
Everybody's got an enemy and mine might be the scene I see inside of my imagination
Though I know your gonna be okay I pray just in case that guy decides to stray
Like a black cat in the night, sneaking with bad luck, trying to pick you up
Tell me baby you'll be in my arms safe and sound, not too long from now

In the club drinking, dancing having fun,
And the night seems like it just begun,
But It's two-thirty and you gotta find a taxi

Pushing, shoving your way through the crowd
And ya hear both your friends yell out loud
"We're walking, cause there's no room in the back seat"

But there's a man in the back of my head
Creeping deep inside the shadows in the back alleys on your way home
Waiting there in an all black hood with a cigarette, he's got a gun
He's thirsty for a pretty face like yours

Let me know when you're home alright so I don't go mad waiting up all night
Worrying, and thinking about that world
Everybody's got an enemy and mine it might be the scene I see inside of my imagination
Though I know your gonna be okay I pray just in case that guy decides to stray
Like a black cat in the night, sneaking with bad luck, trying to pick you up
Tell me baby you'll be in my arms safe and sound, not too long from now

Well it's not that I don't trust you baby
I'd give my life to keep you safe with me

It's just that there are so many freaks in the world I can't sleep

Cause they're creeping on women then they're fleeing the scene oh

Let me know when you're home alright so I don't go mad, up all night

Worrying and thinking about my girl

Everybody's got an enemy, mine it might be that scene I see inside of my imagination

Though I know your gonna be okay I pray just in case that guy decides to stray

Like a black cat in the night, sneaking with bad luck, trying to pick you up

Tell me baby you'll be in my arms, safe and sound, not too long from now

Tell me baby you'll be in my arms safe and sound

Tell me baby you'll be in my arms safe and sound not too long from now
