

Pain

I feel pain like I've never felt before
It hurts ungodly inside of me
It's been days and it hasn't gone away
Guess I'll have to wait for time to heal

But there will be a scar so deep inside my heart
Clinging inside there like a leech
Pulling out the love, injecting in the pain
It'll never be the same for eternity

But I'll do my best not to be afraid
I'm gonna push away the pain and find another way
I'm gonna stand tall and I'm gonna be strong
I'm gonna try to make the best of what's today
Cause everything will be ok
But it's an awful feeling with this pain

I can't eat, I can't sleep and I can't believe
What use to be a part of me I'm never gonna see again my friend
The feeling I exist to end

I've never cried like this for so long at a time
And nothing seems to help to get it off my mind
Want to wake up tomorrow knowing this was all a dream

I keep thinking that I did something horrible
And then ten minutes later I just don't know
I really haven't a clue on what I am supposed to think

I've got a million questions inside my head
Did I do it all wrong no matter what was said?
And it's not helping me with this terrible pain

But I'll do my best not to be afraid
I'm gonna push away the pain, find another way
I'm gonna stand tall and I'm gonna be strong
I'm gonna try to make the best of what's today
Cause everything will be ok
But it's an awful feeling with this pain
